FORMER SUPERIOR COURT OF N.J. JUDGE JOINS AREA LAW FIRM

Judge Anthony J. Parrillo (ret).
Of Counsel, Szaferman Lakind

Lawrenceville, N.J. - Thursday, October 2, 2014: Mr. Anthony James Parrillo, P.J.A.D. (ret.), a former Presiding Judge of the Superior Court of New Jersey, Appellate Division, has become Of Counsel to the law firm of Szaferman, Lakind, Blumstein & Blader, P.C.

Between 1976 and 1990, prior to his service on the bench with the Superior Court of New Jersey, Judge Parrillo served multiple roles with the New Jersey Attorney General including Executive Assistant, Director, Deputy and Deputy Chief.

Judge Parrillo became a Superior Court of New Jersey Judge in 1990 and was appointed a Presiding Judge, General Equity and Probate Part, in 1996. In 2000, Judge Parrillo was appointed Judge, Appellate Division, Superior Court of New Jersey and in 2010 was appointed Presiding Judge, Appellate Division, of the Superior Court of New Jersey. During his service, Judge Parrillo was responsible for administering and supervising the work of a panel of appellate judges deciding more than 450 cases annually.

“We feel most fortunate to welcome Judge Parrillo to our firm after a distinguished career on the bench. He will be a valuable resource in our litigation and appellate work in addition to developing his own practice in arbitration, mediation and discovery management.” said firm Co-Founder and Managing Partner, Barry Szaferman.

When asked about his new role with Szaferman Lakind, Judge Parrillo responded, “From my perspective on the bench, Szaferman Lakind has well earned its reputation for excellence and professionalism and I consider it a privilege to be associated with attorneys who are of the highest caliber and integrity. I look forward to making a meaningful contribution to the firm.”
